Event Start/End Times:

- Event Start: Badge pick-up begins at noon ET on Monday, April 7, 2025, with the opening plenary starting at 3:00 pm ET.
- Event End: The event concludes at 5:00 pm ET on Wednesday, April 9, 2025.
- The preliminary schedule at-a-glance is available here.

Note: These times are subject to minor adjustments, but this will provide a general framework for planning your travel. Please plan to have your group stay for the duration of the event to maximize their experience, and since presentations can be scheduled at any time during the duration and special scheduling requests won't be accommodated.

Housing Information:

CUR has negotiated discounted hotel rates for National Conference on Undergraduate Research attendees. We have streamlined the hotel booking process this year. More details, including pricing, how to book, and group booking options, please visit the Travel & Lodging section on the conference website here.

Travel Discounts:

Exclusive discounts on travel, including airfare, are available for NCUR participants. To access these discounts, please visit the Travel & Lodging section on the conference website here.

Registration Options and Payment:

All presenting students (primary and co-presenters) must be registered. All mentors who will be attending to support students must also be registered.

Note: A special presentation only pass will be available for family members only to purchase who would like to attend your presentation between March 7-14, 2025. Please submit requests in writing to NCUR@CUR.org.

Individual vs. Group Registration:

- Individual Registration: Participants can register and pay as individuals at the time of registration.
- *New Group Registration: As a campus coordinator, you will have an option to complete a group registration. In order to access this registration option, make sure you have a CUR Account set up. Note: The group registration pathway will have an option to email an invoice if an email address is entered or there is an option to print an invoice after completing the process. Please make sure you have all of the registration details prior to creating your group registration so you won't have to exit the system and start over. A registration detail template is available here.

Lunch Options:

- With Lunch: Register by selecting the "with lunch" option during registration. The total fee will include the cost of lunch for each participant.
- Without Lunch: To register without lunch, please select the "without lunch" option during registration.

Note: The lunch option needs to be pre-ordered during registration and will not be offered onsite. Once the registration is complete, this option cannot be changed. Lunch buffet will cover a variety of dietary options and be announced prior to registration opening.

Payment Options:

Individual: Credit card only

Group: Credit card, check, or ACH

Once you have selected the appropriate option, follow the instructions to complete payment. More detailed registration instructions can be found here.
