1983 Football Team

The 1983 "Scarlet Hawks" Football Team has to be considered one of the greatest in M.H.S. history. They won a school-record ten regular season games, with no losses, advanced to the Division I Central Massachusetts Super Bowl and soundly defeated a heavily favored Leominster squad, 21-13, to finish 11-0.

Few people expected Milford High to produce a team so quickly that could be compared in talent with the 1975 Division II Super Bowl Champions. But in only his fourth season as Head Coach, Dennis Breen did a masterful job despite having key injuries to several players over the course of the season. In a year when the Midland League was exceptionally physical and featured some great players on teams such as Marlboro, Westboro and Algonquin, Milford stood tall.

This unbelievable season began with a fourth down and long pass from Greg Burns to Vin Seaver for the winning score against defending Eastern Mass Super Bowl Champion Franklin, 19-12. A come-from-behind win against Marlboro (14-10) and a hard-fought victory over Algonquin (12-2) also set the stage for this dream-come-true season.

The 1983 squad was a very intelligent, tight knit team, with every single member contributing to its success. Very few players on this team played both ways, which showed the depth and talent it possessed. Most importantly, this team knew how to win. In comparison to all too many championship teams, this was a quiet, focused group who simply went out on the field and won.

This magical season concluded with the Super Bowl victory over Leominster. The Blue Devils entered the game looking for their fourth consecutive Super Bowl victory. But, on this day, the heavily favored and highly touted Leominster team was out-played, out-hit and out-coached by this great Scarlet Hawk team.
