

Tamara S. (Quaresima) Webber
Class of 1985

Tamara (Quaresima) Webber exemplified the phrase "student-athlete" during her career at Milford High School. A three-sport athlete in volleyball, basketball and softball she was a main reason all three sports rose to prominence in the early eighties.

On the basketball court, Tammy put her height to good use. A fine rebounder, she also had a nice scoring touch from inside, averaging 12 points per game at center during her senior year. She helped lead the Scarlet Hawks to their first tournament berth in seven years. In softball, Tammy also felt at home around the first-base bag and batted .540 her senior year, helping the team to the league championship and a place in the district tournament.

It was on the volleyball court, however, where she really excelled as a superb all-around player. A three-year varsity starter at middle hitter, Tammy made her presence felt at the net. As a senior, she led the team in blocks and kills. During her tenure with the Varsity, Milford won three league titles and three Central Mass Championships. She was the team's MVP her junior and senior year, as well as a Boston Globe All-Scholastic.

Tammy became only the second female athlete from Milford to earn a full athletic scholarship to a Division I school. She attended Clemson University and lettered all four years. Webber returned to teach in Milford and has coached the Varsity Girls Volleyball Team to thirteen straight league titles, four District Championships and one State Finals. She also is presently in her second year as Varsity Boys Volleyball Coach.

Tammy is married to Michael Webber and is the mother of Mackenzie and Cade.
