

Steven Foley Class of 1985

At 5'3" and 107 lbs. as a senior, Steven Foley never let his size deter him from becoming a success in the athletic arena. In fact, he used it to his advantage while helping the teams he competed on achieve their own championship goals.

Foley used his superior quickness and agility as a forward on the soccer field to out-manuever taller and slower defensemen. As a tri-captain and one of only three seniors on the team, he was instrumental in leading the 1984 squad to the Midland League Championship.

Steve was a determined competitor who hated to lose, something he did not need to deal with very often during his four years as a varsity wrestler. He competed at 100 lbs. his first three seasons on the mat before moving up to 107 lbs. as a senior. The numbers he compiled were phenomenal, and his achievements are stunning.

During a time when wrestlers were limited to 20 matches a year before tournament season, he amassed a four-year record of 126-11-1. Over his final two years, he won two Sectional Championships, two Division 2 State Championships, a New England Championship at 100 lbs. as a junior, and was 2nd in the New England at 107 lbs. as a senior. He posted a perfect record of 44-0 as he swept through the dual meet and tournament seasons during his junior year.

Steve was also a key member of the 1983 Division 2 State Championship Wrestling Team. A two-time Milford Daily News and Boston Herald All Star, he was also a Boston Globe All Scholastic in 1984. When he graduated in 1985, Steve held the Milford High School record for most career wins and career points scored.

Robert H. Gilmore Class of 1951

Robert H. "Bob" Gilmore's 1951 Oak, Lily and Ivy yearbook caption reads "Helpful...good natured...a proven friend to all...one of the real gentlemen of the class." He was all that plus an outstanding two-sport athlete who's only ambition was "to be a success".

At 6'4" and 210 lbs., Bob was a two-year starter at center on Hall of Fame Coach J. Francis Cahill's basketball team. During his senior year, he averaged 10 points and 12 rebounds a game while helping the team to a 12-7 record. A highlight of his year was scoring 32 points in a victory over Midland League rival Marlboro.

It was on the baseball diamond, though, that Bob really stood out. Teamed up again with another Hall of Famer- Coach Charlie Brucato – he had a stellar three-year varsity career. Although a solid hitter who could hold his own as a right fielder, Bob developed into one of the best pitchers in Central Massachusetts as a senior.

As captain of the 1951 Scarlets, he compiled a record of 6-1, including two one-hitters. During one stretch, he went 40 2/3 innings without giving up an earned run and led the team to a 10-3 record. His efforts earned him a spot on both the Midland League All Star Team and the New England Hearst Sandlot Baseball Team.

Bob also pitched for the 1949 and 1950 Powers Post Legion Teams. The 1950 squad was runner-up to Somerville for the State Legion Baseball Championship. He played two years at the local semi-pro level before signing a minor league contract with the Boston / Milwaukee Braves in 1952. During his first season with Appleton, WI of the Class D League, he compiled a league-best record of 9-3, led the League with a 2.90 ERA and 110 K's in 93 innings. Despite suffering an arm injury that season, he compiled a record of 13-5 with Lawton, OK the following season. A second arm injury ended his career in 1955.
