1978 State Championship Wrestling Team

Captained by John Frascotti, Vin Cosentino and Greg Doyle, the 1978 Wrestling Team was certainly one of the most dominating athletic teams ever to come out of Milford High School. Finishing the storm-shortened season unbeaten at 13-0 in dual meets, the team also captured the Lowell Holiday Tournament, the Division II South Sectional Tournament, the Division II State Tournament and placed 3rd at the New England Championships.

Three individuals- John Frascotti (121 lbs.), Andy DuQuesnay (134 lbs.) and Greg Doyle (140 lbs.)- completed undefeated dual meet seasons. Eight individuals captured Sectional Championships in their respective weight classes, as the team scored a record 250 team points (for twelve weight classes) and eleven out of twelve wrestlers qualified for the state tournament.

Greg Doyle and Jim Mazzuchelli became Milford's first individual State Champions, with Mazzuchelli earning the New England Championship at 171 lbs. and Doyle earning New England Runner-up at 140 lbs. Both wrestlers were named to the Boston Globe and Boston Herald All Scholastic Teams, with Doyle being recognized as the Boston Globe "Wrestler of the Year".

Coach Nick Zacchilli, who was assisted by John Brucato, was named the "Coach of the Year" by both the Boston Globe and Boston Herald.
