

Craig L. Radcliffe Class of 1988

Craig L. Radcliffe left his mark as perhaps the best basketball player in Milford High School history. A three-year varsity starter, the 6-foot-6 center could do it all.

Craig's individual statistics over the course of his career were truly outstanding. He was the career scoring leader with 1,071 points, a school record which still stands as of 2004. As a senior he averaged 25 points per game, 12 rebounds per game and 4 assists. He shot an incredible 64% from the floor and 85% from the free throw line. In the game that brought him over the 1,000 point barrier, he scored 34 points, had 10 offensive rebounds and scored 24 straight points for Milford in a win over Algonquin.

As both a junior and a senior, Craig was named to the Midland League, Milford Daily News, Middlesex News and Worcester Telegram All Star Teams. As a senior, he was named to the Massachusetts "Top 40" Team.

His individual exploits led the team to its first two back-to-back Midland League Championships in 1987 and 1988. The team also won the Clark Tournament Large School Championship for the first time ever in 1987 and repeated the fete in 1988. The 1988 team advanced to the District Finals where they lost to Fitchburg, 68-59.

Craig attended Assumption College on a full scholarship. He was a key player and team captain as a senior on teams that won three straight Northeast 10 regular season titles and participated in two NCAA Division II Regionals as well as one ECAC Division II Tournament.

Thomas J. Tominski Class of 1938

Thomas J. "Bull" Tominski was described in the 1938 edition of the Oak, Lily and Ivy as "a Jack of all trades. He was a notable figure on the gridiron, the ball diamond and the basketball court..." He was awarded the Dr. John V. Gallagher medal as the top scholar-athlete in his senior class.

Tom utilized his size and strength to great advantage on the basketball court. He was a strong defender and dependable rebounder who could score if needed. A two-year varsity player at both offensive and defensive end, he accepted a football scholarship to Boston University.

It was on the baseball diamond that Tom made his mark. Referred to as Coach Ted Steeves' "pride and joy", he was an outstanding power hitter. His versatility was evident as he excelled as both on the pitching mound and behind the plate. His teams won both Midland League and Bay State League championships.

During World War II, Tom served with the US Air Force as a member of the North Atlantic Search and Rescue Team. He then attended the Bill McGowin Umpiring School, graduating near the top of the class in 1947. After a season umpiring in the Class C Pioneer League, he returned to Milford and umpired high school, American Legion and college ball.

Tom served the town as a member of the Milford Police Department for five years before accepting a position with the US Postal Service. He was held in high esteem throughout the community and in 1970 was chosen to serve a Mayor of Prospect Heights.
