

1987 Boys Basketball Team

The 1987 Milford High School Boys Basketball Team, led by Head Coach Steve Manguso, was the catalyst that propelled the program to the top echelon of high school basketball teams in Central Massachusetts.

Senior captain Ken Guyton and junior captain Craig Radcliffe were joined on the court by John Beccia, Peter Blasio, Todd Boldy, Sean Kearney, Matt Palmer, Mike Reed, Bill Schroeder, Steve Webber, Bob Whitelaw and Chris Wild.

The team's accomplishments included the following:

- 19-3 overall record
- First Midland League Boys Basketball Championship since 1972
- First ever Clark Tournament Championship, defeating 19-0 Bartlett High School
- First Boys Basketball Sectional Tournament victory in 46 years, in over-time, over defending Division I State Finalist

Mike Reed, Steve Webber and Craig Radcliffe earned Midland League All Star honors, while Radcliffe also earned Milford Daily News and Worcester telegram and Gazette All Star recognition.